

Venetia Kostaki holds a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration and a masters in Services Management.

She is a Human Resources Professional since 2014 and she has an extensive working experience in the Recruitment field as she has worked in employment agency, as well as in corporate environments in the area of recruitment. Venetia through her working experience has acquired a multi-faceted knowledge of Talent Acquisition, IT Recruitment and Employer Branding and has excelled her communications skills.

The past 2.5 she works for INTRALOT in the fields of Talent Acquisition and Talent Management and she shares her time between Recruitment, Training and Performance Management. She is passionate and results oriented professional with strong organizational skills that focuses on her targets. She can act as a perfect mentor for all participants that would like to have an in-dept career growth discussion in the area of Human Resources.