

A dynamic and results driven, self-motivated Head of Horeca Sales at METRO with a successful background in developing and maintaining profitable retailing relationships. Experienced in working with leading brands in the competitive market of FMCG and Sales, delivering growth and profitability through the implementation of effective Management techniques. Possesses excellent interpersonal, communication and negotiation skills, the ability to influence decisions and implement change when required.